

Here's a polished Cambridge-standard scheme of work outline you can use for online English lessons, spanning K–4 learners up to K–12 and IGCSE prep. It's structured to grow with your students, aligned with Cambridge's most recent curriculum emphasis on literacy, global awareness, and digital learning.

K–4 (Early Years & Lower Primary)

Focus: Building foundational literacy and communication skills

- Phonics & Word Recognition: Letter sounds, blending, sight words
- Reading Comprehension: Short stories, picture books, sequencing events
- Writing Skills: Simple sentences, punctuation, creative writing with prompts
- Speaking & Listening: Story retelling, show-and-tell, role play
- Digital Literacy: Using online storybooks, interactive phonics games

K–5 to K–8 (Upper Primary & Lower Secondary)

Focus: Expanding vocabulary, grammar, and analytical skills

- Grammar & Vocabulary: Parts of speech, sentence structure, synonyms/antonyms
- Reading Comprehension: Longer texts, identifying themes, character analysis
- Writing Skills: Paragraph development, descriptive writing, summaries
- Speaking & Listening: Debates, presentations, group discussions
- Global Themes: Sustainability, cultural diversity (aligned with Cambridge updates)
- Digital Integration: Online quizzes, collaborative writing platforms

K–9 to K–12 (Secondary & Pre-IGCSE)

Focus: Academic writing, critical thinking, exam readiness

- Advanced Grammar & Usage: Complex sentences, cohesion, style
- Literature Study: Poetry, prose, drama (Cambridge texts)
- Writing Skills: Essays, reports, narrative and persuasive writing
- Speaking & Listening: Formal presentations, interviews, oral summaries
- Critical Thinking: Analyzing author's purpose, comparing texts
- Digital Literacy: Research skills, citation, online collaboration

IGCSE Preparation (Cambridge English Language & Literature)

Focus: Exam techniques, analytical depth, independent study

- Reading & Analysis: Unseen texts, inference, evaluating language and structure
- Writing: Argumentative essays, discursive writing, creative composition
- Literature in English: Set texts (novels, plays, poetry), thematic analysis
- Exam Skills: Time management, planning responses, open-text analysis (new Cambridge update)
- Global Awareness: Climate change, sustainability themes integrated into texts
- Digital Exams: Practice with online platforms, typing speed, formatting

Suggested Weekly Structure (Online-Friendly)

- Day 1: Reading & comprehension
- Day 2: Grammar & vocabulary
- Day 3: Writing practice
- Day 4: Speaking & listening activities
- Day 5: Literature study / IGCSE exam practice
